TENT CITY TO BE SETTLED TODAY

Whether the "tent city" of temporary houses contemplated by Richard Trent to care for the tourists is to be a reality will be known this afternoon at 3 o'clock. At that time it will be definitely ascertained if the land on Kalaheima, Ewa of the Seaside Hotel, where it is planned to erect the city, can be obtained.

This question is now the only one which stands in the way and if that is overcome, within a week all the 20 buildings which Trent plans to erect will be finished and ready for occupancy. Trent said this morning that if there is any delay at all he will not attempt to carry out the scheme.

The houses are to be 15x20 feet in size, including a five-foot lanai. In some, however, instead of having a lanai the five feet are to be utilized at the back for a kitchen. The houses are to be constructed entirely of wood. The walls to be five feet high with the remaining four feet protected with wire screens. The eaves will be long, thus protecting the open space.

FINDS COYOTE UNDER BED AFTER SLEEPING
SOUNDLY ALL NIGHT

HAYDEN, Colo.—Isadore Boloten, a ranchman living a few miles from Hayden, had an experience a few nights ago, so far as is known, that is unequaled in the history of the county.
Boloten, who is a bachelor, was at work in his ranch during the daytime and, as usual, returned to the house in the evening, lighted his fire and after preparing and eating supper, retired. In the morning, while waiting for the kitchen fire to burn, he noticed what seemed to be a dog lying under the bed, its eyes fixed on him.
Not being the owner of a dog, he became alarmed, took his rifle from its hook near the stove and shot at the animal. It leaped from under the bed and the second shot brought it down.

Neighbors rushed to the Boloten home, alarmed by the shooting. They arrived to find the beast, which proved to be large coyote, in its death struggles. How or why the animal sought a sleeping place in the house and why it did not make its presence known sooner puzzles Boloten, who still shudders every time he thinks of having slept through the night with a coyote under the bed.

POLICE COURT NOTES

Edna Amis and Cornilio were given suspended sentences when arraigned in the district court and found guilty of a statutory charge.

J. F. Lameke, third officer on the Hyades, was fined $10 in police court for assaulting a younger and much smaller employe on the same boat.

Fujimoto was fined $25 and given one day's imprisonment by Judge Monsarrat in district court for driving an auto truck while he was under the influence of liquor.

A portable vacuum cleaner of English invention can be used as a seat, table, cabinet, music stool or pedestal.
The French government, it is announced, has refused to ratify the proposed compromise settlement of the Tientsin concession dispute.

PERSONALITIES

HUNTER PERRY of Atlanta, Ga., is visiting in the city on business.

LEON VOORSANGER and family are among the recent arrivals. They came on the Wilhelmina.

C. H. KING, mail clerk at the Young Hotel, has been off duty for the past few days on account of poor health.

MR. AND MRS. F. S. DICKINSON of New York have returned from a visit in the country and are at the Young Hotel.

FRANK GREENWELL of the Hono-kahu ranch, Kailua, Hawaii, is in Honolulu on business. He is registered at the Young Hotel.

MYRON AUWERS, stenographer at headquarters of the Hawaiian department, has been confined to his home since yesterday morning through illness.

MISS LEONA GOODMAN of San Francisco is spending a holiday in Honolulu. It is her first visit to the islands. She has been prominently connected with the Belgian and French relief work in San Francisco.

TINA LERNA, a pianist of note from Russia, is expected in Honolulu on the Great Northern January 30.
The Russian artist has won considerable fame in Europe and will give at least one concert here.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

—CAPT. G. K. LARRISON, 1st Co., Hawaiian Coast Artillery Corps: We will have some good news for the boys next week. Be sure to come to drill.

—CAPT. RAYMOND A. WHEELER, Co. D, Engineers, Fort Shafter: It is almost miraculous that the men capsized off Mokapu Point weren't lost Thursday.

—CHARLES F. CHILLINGWORTH: It is not necessary according to law for me to resign my position as prosecuting attorney while in the legislature. I merely do so because I can not do justice to both positions. Neither am I an "elect," but a "holdover" senator.

—EMIL A. BERNDT: There will come a time some day when Hawaii will be the most popular and renowned tourist resort in the United States.
It has the natural advantages which brings visitors here; all that is now necessary is for the local people to entertain the visitors and make them want to come back.

Five persons are missing and more than a score injured as a result of the explosion of an acetylene plant in the cellar of the Madison Hotel at Mount Holly, N. J.

SEVEN PERSONS
ON THE ISLAND

There is quite a "happy family" of quarantined American citizens at the U. S. public health service hospital and detention station on Quarantine island.

Mrs. James Clarke is recovering nicely from smallpox contracted in Hongkong. She was taken off the Tenyo Maru. Her husband and the stepdaughters are with her and Dr. F.
E. Trotter, chief quarantine officer, said today he hopes to get them away on the Shinyo Maru, due to leave here for San Francisco February 6.

Master Wardlaw Witherspoon is getting along nicely with his light attack of scarlet fever. His mother and two nurses are near him at the station and all express their satisfaction at the clean and comfortable quarters for patients detained on the island.
Mrs. Witherspoon is allowed to see her husband daily. She says Honolulu's quarantine station is much superior to that in New Orleans, the Witherspoons' home city. "It is beautifully cool and quiet, too," she remarked. "The only noise is the surf on the beach."

BANK ROBBER CAPTURED
AFTER ALL-NIGHT CHASE

GOLDENDALE, Wash.—An all-night pursuit by a posse of cowboys and deputy sheriffs of a lone robber who escaped with $4000 after a daylight hold-up of the Bickleton bank at Bickleton, Wash., ended successfully when a man giving the name of Henry Jones was cornered and arrested in the sagebrush on Satus Creek on the Yakima Reservation.
Jones was taken without a struggle and immediately admitted that he robbed the bank.

Practically all the money has been recovered. Jones had $950 when arrested. The balance was dropped in his flight and has been found.

So hot was the chase that the robber was forced to abandon his horse and make his way through the sagebrush afoot. A package containing $2000 was found where he left his horse.

Jones entered the bank and ordered the officials to throw up their hands at the point of a revolver. They were then told to get him money from the vault, which they did. He mounted a waiting horse and started northeast, soon followed by the posse.

Edges Smooth and Strong

A KEEN KUTTER Pocket Knife will take an edge smooth and fine enough to cut paper, and strong and lasting enough to work in hickory.

The reason is that the makers select the material as carefully, and devote so much attention to pocket knives as to the finest saw or chisel.

The adjustments are made by specialists and rigid tests prove their worth before they are allowed to leave the factory as
